CLUB NOTES

The West Ham story is particularly brief, and until their visit in 1951 not at all encouraging—the first six of seven clashes here being won by North End, starting in 1924 until that April 1951 solitary goal success by the Hammers, which at the time ended a fabulous North End promotion run of twenty unbeaten League games, and a first home reverse for eight solid months, plus our only double-defeat of that wonderful season.

Our London visitors began to be noticed in 1895, not as a professional club, but with the formation of a works team. This is as it should be, for since those early days the West Ham club has drawn such large support from the people of London's busy docksides, manufacturing concerns, print shops and transport depots of East London. The club specialised in recruiting talent from 'over the wall' as it were—using chiefly the local material from the back streets and playing fields of Essex, and still does. The Thames Ironworks F.C. arose from the workers of such a concern, which stood at the mouth of the River Lea, a shipyard with great traditions. The Company was reformed in 1900 under its now known name, and first played on their present ground at Boleyn Castle—better known as Upton Park—on September 2nd, 1904 against Millwall, once the home of a Tudor Queen. They were members of the old Southern League from 1900 until 1915, elected to Division Two of the Football League in 1919, promoted in 1923, members of League One until relegated in 1932, promoted again as recently as 1958. They were last at Deepdale on the evening of August 25th, 1959, fully meriting a 1-1 draw, which gives them the record here of nine previous Cup and League encounters, won one, drawn one, and lost seven. West Ham's present away record of won one, drawn two and lost eleven, is the worst in the First Division.

PARKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

All football supporters are asked to co-operate with the police and fire services in traffic matters near Deepdale. Large car parks exist within a short distance of the ground and more use ought to be made of them. Indiscriminate parking, often on both sides of narrow streets, is an undesirable hazard to the safety of lives and property. In an emergency these conditions would seriously interfere with fire engines, ambulances and police vehicles. Your co-operation in this matter would be appreciated.

MEET THE OPPOSITION . . . .

Surprisingly defeated at home last week by struggling West Bromwich Albion, when the Hammers made one of their rare slips at Upton Park—our London visitors can be relied upon for unyielding opposition this afternoon, despite the poorest away record in the Division.

In goal we should see the newcomer to Deepdale, the London Marylebone-born goalkeeper BRIAN RHODES, signed pro for Hammers in season 1954-55 after England Youth trial, League debut against Blackburn in September, 1957. Right back provides rivalry from veteran JOHN BOND, a native of Colchester and professional with his club for eleven years now—toured South Africa with the F.A. Party in 1956, played for Football League and England 'B'. Scores numerous goals in his adventurous play. JOE KIRKUP vies with him for selection, he hails from Sunderland, was on the Upton Park ground staff and professional at the age of seventeen years. England Youth selection, he made his senior debut against Manchester City on December 13th, 1958. Left back JOHN LYALL, a former amateur with the Hammers, signed professional forms in May, 1957, another former England Youth team player, senior debut versus Chelsea in February, 1960.

Right half and seldom absent is the local ANDY MALCOLM, a former schoolboy international skipper, worked in the club offices when on amateur forms, England Youth appearances, League debut during season 1953-54. Football League honour.

TheWest Ham pivot stands six feet tall, one England cap against Ireland in 1960, this is KEN BROWN, a Londoner from Forest Gate—joined the Hammers professional staff in October, 1951, League debut in season 1952-53. Left half is the London-born youngster BOBBY MOORE, already selected to tour New Zealand and the Far East with Tom Finney and Fred Else in the forthcoming close season. England Under 23's honours, signed professional in May, 1957, after ground staff service.

Bobby Moore

Played no less than eighteen times for England Youth—which is a record for any one player. Captained England Youth in the European Youth Tournament of 1958. League debut against Manchester United on September 8th, 1958.

Right winger TONY SCOTT is another Londoner, and yet one more product of the Upton Park ground-staff nursery. Twelve appearances for the England Youth team, some of these in the 1958 European Tournament. Signed professional in May, 1958, debut against Chelsea in February, 1960. His inside partner is the talented Welsh international PHIL WOOSNAM who comes from Caersws, a former Welsh amateur international and sports master at Leyton—transferred from Leyton Orient to West Ham in November, 1958, debut for his present club against Arsenal in the same month. Centre forward stranger to this ground is HARRY OBENEY, a further London-born player in the Hammer's ranks. He comes from Bethnal Green, first as amateur with his club, professional in May, 1956, has England Youth recognition. Inside left and full of wily experience is the Scot JOHN DICK, who comes from Govan and was capped by Scotland against England at Wembley in 1959. A former Scottish junior player who was however snapped up by the Upton Park judges of a player, when with the Essex junior club Crittall Athletic—signed professional forms for his club in May, 1953. A free scoring danger man, who averages one goal for every two League games in the last five seasons. Left winger MALCOLM MUSGROVE was born at Newcastle-on-Tyne, and as a schoolboy played rugby in Northumberland. West Ham secured his professional services in November, 1953, upon his release from the R.A.F. Scored a spectacular goal on West Ham's last visit to Deepdale, and also netted three against us last October at Upton Park.
